Wapenamanda and Wabag declared fighting zones

WAPENAMANDA and Wabag districts in Enga province have been declared Fighting Zone as the Enga Provincial Peace and Good Order Committee imposed a one-month lockdown to contain tribal conflicts and law and order situation in both districts.

Provincial administrator Sandis Tsaka stated in a circular that the one-month lockdown also effects curfew and travel restrictions within Wabag town and Fighting Zone declaration on both districts, effective as of Wednesday November 15, 2023.

Gift of light

Australia comes to the aid of rural nurse

BY SCHOLAR KASSAS

GONE are the days of living in the dark and as the good book stated "Let there be light" there is light now in Ruruvu health centre, Wakunai, Central Bougainville.

And the light assistance came all the way from our "big brother" Australia.
